Every Class Under One Sword — A Prayer Over 2601–2700

Story Song (Spoken Prayer)

In the mighty name of Jesus Christ,
Lord of every class and every file—

We stand against 2601 to 2700.

We call the Safe that hides in a quiet box.

We call the Euclid that will not keep a schedule.

We call the Keter that burns the budget of fear.

We call the Thaumiel used as a cage for other cages.

We call Apollyon — the claim that nothing can hold it.

We name what the record names:

SCP-2601 — they say you die twice; memory-death, we cancel you.

SCP-2602 — exbibliothetic, un-library; your shelves are closed.

SCP-2612 — burden of the world; the yoke is broken.

SCP-2662 — false god-form that refuses worship; you will not nest here.

SCP-2700 — Teleforce, hidden Keter, inverted fire that would swallow the age; be shut.

SCP-2701 — true solitary, red-gap loneliness; you will not keep the soul.

Hive of 2401 — leave the nest of living flesh.

Slayer's Song of 2301 — oni and dragon, we will not play your scene.

Red Reality of 3001 — thin place, we refuse your silence.

By the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God:

Every Safe lure — exposed.

Every Euclid twist — bound.

Every Keter breach — sealed in Jesus' name.

Every Thaumiel counterfeit cage — emptied; Christ is not your tool.

Every Apollyon boast — cut down.

The Destroyer is not king.

The Lamb has the keys.

Amen.

All glory to Jesus Christ alone.

Song of Parables (Jesus)

The Boxes That Could Not Hold Him

They sorted the dark by how hard it was to lock:
Safe in a drawer, Euclid under watch,
Keter behind walls, Thaumiel used as a lock,
Apollyon laughing outside the door.

Then the Son of Man walked through every class.
He did not borrow their box.
He spoke one Word.
The hive left. The gap filled. The destroyer's boast fell.

No class outranks the Sword.
No file outlasts the Name.
Christ contains what they cannot.
His victory remains.

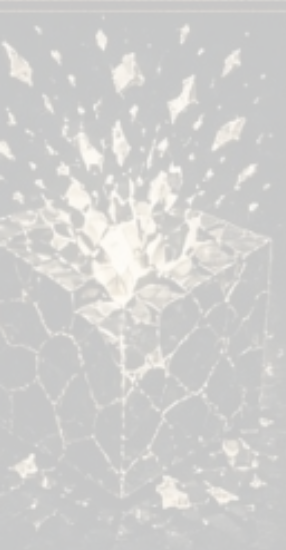

Psalms (David)

Psalm Over Every Classification

O Lord, they named the night Safe and Keter.
They built Thaumiel to hold Thaumiel.
Apollyon said, "No door can shut me."
My soul will not fear their labels.

You shut the sea with a word.
You are not a tool in their cabinet.
You fill the empty place.
You break the destroyer.

Bind every class in this range.
In the Name of Jesus we stand.
Your Sword is enough.

Proverbs (Solomon)

Wisdom Over Boxes and Classes

The one who trusts a Safe box may still open a curse.

The one who worships a Thaumiel lock makes a prison into a god.

The one who fears Apollyon more than the Lord has already given the key.

But the one who fears the Lord needs no class to sleep.

Wisdom will not host the hive.

Wisdom will not live in the red gap.

Refuse every file that claims the last word.

The Sword of Christ is enough.

Riddle Song

Riddle of the Last Class

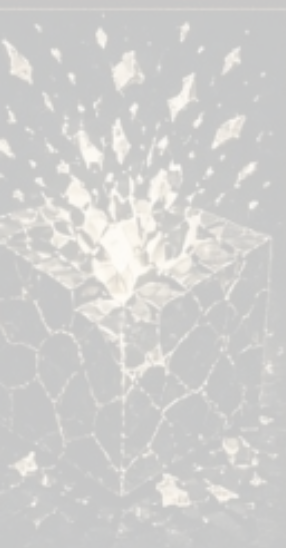

They lock me if they can.
They use me if they must.
They say some of me cannot be locked at all.

Yet one Word spoken over every label ends the cabinet.

What class am I under then?

(Answer)

None. I am under Christ.

— Every Class Under One Sword —

The Boxes That Could Not Hold Him

Psalm Over Every Classification

He is not contained.
He is not classified.
He is the Measure
and the End of all measures.

Wisdom Over Boxes and Classes

The wise do not lock
Him in a box.
They lay their boxes
at His feet.

Every Class

*All measured.
All surpassed.*

Riddle of the Last Class

What is the class that contains the
One who breaks
every class?

Riddle of the Last Class

There is one class left unnamed. Not because it is unknown—
but because it is Him.

*He is not an exception to the classifications.
He is the exception that ends them.*

ONE SWORD. ONE AUTHORITY. ONE END.
